

KOACH, the college program of The United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism, invites you to the Sixteenth Annual KOACH Kallah, February 23-February 26, 2006 at the Ohio State University.

- Students from campuses throughout North America will come together for a weekend of learning, sharing and friendship.
- Rabbi Amy Eilberg, Co-Founder of the Yedidya Center for Spiritual Direction and First Woman Ordained by the Conservative Movement, will be our Scholar-in-Residence.
- Community service projects, an update on Israeli current events and a taste of Columbus will round out the program.
- There will be time to meet in small groups and network with students from across the continent.

Accommodations will be provided at the Holiday Inn on the Lane, a short walk from OSU Hillel and the OSU campus. There will be three to four people in each room (sharing double beds) and meals are included. The cost for the Kallah (not including transportation) is only $185. (Register by December 30 for just $175!) For Ohio State students not staying in the hotel, the registration fee is $50. Limited scholarships are available (the Kallah is already heavily subsidized) and we encourage you to contact the rabbi from your home congregation and your Hillel Foundation for funds as well.

Register no later than February 3, 2006. Space cannot be guaranteed after that time. Upon receipt of your application and deposit, additional details will be sent to you. Should you need to cancel your Kallah reservation, please note that refunds will only be available until February 10, 2006.

Plan to arrive in Columbus by 5:00PM on Thursday, February 23. The Kallah will conclude at 1:00PM on Sunday, February 26.
